Belfast BITES & BREWS

A CITY BURSTING WITH FLAVOUR AND FUN

Welcome to Belfast, where the craic is mighty, the food scene is booming, and the pints are poured to perfection!

Whether you fancy a freshly brewed craft beer, a world-class whiskey, or a creamy pint of Guinness, this city has got you covered. And if you're a foodie, prepare yourself for a culinary adventure that will have you coming back for seconds (or thirds!).

Where To Find The Perfect Pint

Belfast takes its Guinness seriously, and there are plenty of spots to enjoy the Black Stuff at its finest. Some of the city's most historic pubs, including White's Tavern, Kelly's Cellars, The Garrick, and The Deer's Head, serve up expertly poured pints in charming, traditional settings. For something a little different, pop into The Deer's Head and get your own picture printed on top of your Guinness – the ultimate Instagram-worthy pint! Or, why not have a go at pouring your own? Lavery's Belfast, White's Tavern, The Points Bar, The Northern Whig, and Robinsons Bar all offer a 'Pour Your Own Pint' experience.

Meet The Makers

Fancy learning about Belfast's brewing and distilling traditions? Titanic Distillers lets you step into history at Thompson Dock and Pumphouse, where you can hear all about Belfast's whiskey past – and future! For a taste of tradition reborn, visit McConnell's Distillery at the historic Crumlin Road Gaol. One of Ireland's oldest whiskey brands, McConnell's blends heritage with modern craftsmanship to create exceptional spirits. If craft beer is more your thing Out of Office Brewing, Boundary, Bullhouse East and Hilden Brewery offer tours, tastings and some of the best local brews around. At The Deer's Head, you can even watch the brewing process in action at Bell's Brewery while sipping on their latest creations.

Foodie Heaven

Belfast's food scene is thriving, and there's no better way to dive in than with the Belfast Food Tour. This award-winning experience takes you on a four-hour tasting adventure, from the bustling stalls of St George's Market to the cosy corners of the Cathedral Quarter. Join Indie Fude on their popular "Wee Taste of..." tours for a deep dive into the world of local gastronomy and thriving food scene. Tour locations include East Belfast, Ormeau, Comber and Strangford Lough.

For those looking for a plant-based twist, the Vegan Table Tour is a must. This guided walk showcases Belfast's growing vegan scene, with delicious stops along the way.

Cook Up A Storm

Want to take a little bit of Belfast's flavour home with you? Waterman House Cookery School in the Cathedral Quarter offers hands-on classes in everything from one-pot wonders to sushi and cocktails. If baking is more your style, head to Bakehouse NI or Baker & Chef for some top-notch cake and bread-making sessions.

Exclusive Experiences

Belfast's food scene is more than just delicious dishes – it's about creating memories through unique dining experiences. Don't miss these must-tries:

Fish City's Oyster

Masterclass: Discover the art of oyster shucking at Fish City, where you'll learn about the history, sustainability, and varieties of oysters while sampling the freshest local

POUR YOUR OWN PINT

There's a real skill to pouring Guinness – and you can learn it at Lavery's Belfast, White's Tavern, The Points Bar, The Northern Whig, and Robinsons Bar. You'll receive a t-shirt, a certificate of completion – and of course, a pint.

To find out more, scan the QR code or visit article/pour-your-own](https://www.visitbelfast.com/article/pour-your-own) selections. Paired perfectly with a glass of bubbly, this masterclass offers a fun and flavorful dive into Belfast's seafood culture.

Holohan's Pantry Irish

Food Showcase: Monthly collaboration with Taste Atelier and Holohan's Pantry. Chef Artur Fron, and the team at Holohans curate a monthly tasting menu with wine pairing focussing on locally sourced, indigenous produce cooked with modern flare

The Muddler's Club: Tucked away in the Cathedral Quarter, The Muddler's Club delivers an ever-changing tasting menu inspired by the finest seasonal produce. Expect bold, innovative dishes paired with expertly selected wines or craft cocktails, making each visit a one-of-a-kind culinary journey.

BELFAST WAS THE HOME OF TITANIC, STILL IS.

Titanic Belfast, the world's most authentic Titanic visitor experience, is located on the spot where the famous ship was designed, built and launched. Our iconic building features the self-guided Titanic Experience which tells the story of RMS Titanic, from her conception in Belfast in the early 1900s, through her construction and launch, to her famous maiden voyage and tragic end.

Following a £4.7 million refresh, a new theme The Pursuit of Dreams has been introduced along with a stunning new artefact collection and an illuminated 7.6 metre long scale model of RMS Titanic which rotates in sync with state-of-the-art projections for a truly immersive experience.

Visitors can see more, hear more and feel more as new light is shed on Titanic's story and the hopes and dreams of those connected to her, as the Ship of Dreams comes to life for a spectacular and unforgettable experience!

As part of your ticket to Titanic Experience, you can step on board SS Nomadic, the world's last remaining White Star vessel and RMS Titanic's original tender ship, where you can walk the decks, explore the ship, and journey through over 100 years of authentic maritime and social history.

DISCOVER MORE AT TITANIC BELFAST

With an exciting programme of events and exhibitions coming up over the next few months, there's plenty to see and do during your visit to Titanic Belfast!

St Patrick's weekend (15th-17th) will see live Irish Dancing in our Grand Atrium and seasonal drinks offers.

From 8th March, to celebrate International Women's Day, you can view a free pop-up exhibition, telling the stories of the remarkable women who lived through Titanic's tragic maiden voyage... but whose stories didn't end there.

Or why not take an award-winning Discovery Tour? Explore the hidden symbolism within the iconic Titanic Belfast building and find out fact and fable as you walk in the footsteps of the designers and shipbuilders who brought the dream to life.

A Night to Remember

14th April 2025
Book at TitanicBelfast.com

Join us on 14th April to commemorate RMS Titanic on the night of her sinking, through the voices of those whose lives were forever changed by her journey. Follow Titanic's voyage from vision to reality, from celebration to catastrophe and from loss to legend.

During this 90-minute experience, guests will be guided through key locations within Titanic Belfast, where they will hear poignant monologues, stirring musical performances, and stories shared by our knowledgeable crew.

A commemorative programme will stand alongside the storytelling, adding rich context to the powerful testimonies.

Designed to complement the performances, the programme will offer guests a layer of historical detail that enriches the journey through Titanic's past.

Maritime Mile

SINCLAIR SEAMEN'S CHURCH

Built by Charles Lanyon in 1857-58 to meet the spiritual needs of visiting sailors, this part church, part maritime museum has a pulpit shaped like a ship's prow, a brass ship's wheel and binnacle (used as a baptismal font) salvaged from a WWI wreck and the ship's bell from HMS Hood.

BELFAST HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS

This stunning building dates back to 1847, and you can visit an exhibition in the Heritage Room which celebrates 400 years of Belfast's maritime history, detailing Belfast's emergence as a major port and the city's subsequent growth and development as an industrial hub.

CLARENDON DOCK & CITY QUAYS

The dry docks where Belfast's shipbuilding industry was born date back to 1800-1826. Both docks were used to work on ships' hulls and the workshop was designed for working on the rigging of sailing ships. The area has now been transformed into the City Quays development, home to a mix of commercial offices, shops, cafes, restaurants as well as the AC Hotel by Marriott Belfast.

THE BIG FISH

The beautiful blue scales on the Salmon of Knowledge (affectionately known as The Big Fish) are made up of ceramic tiles depicting scenes from the city's history. Legend has it that if you kiss the fish you'll gain all of its wisdom!

LAGAN WEIR

A wide, modern foot and cycle bridge connecting the city centre with Titanic Quarter. Beautifully illuminated in the evening, take a seat and enjoy the views of the city from the River Lagan.

GLASS OF THRONES

You'll find 6 Game of Thrones stained glass windows dotted along the Maritime Mile, from AC Hotel past Titanic Studios to HMS Caroline. Take a stroll to rediscover the most iconic moments from the saga immortalised in stained glass.

THE BELFAST BUOYS

The three buoys are estimated to be around 80 years old, and would have been used by mariners to find a safe channel to and from port. Recently restored to their original colours, they have been installed as a permanent display at Abercorn Basin.

SS NOMADIC

The last remaining White Star Line vessel, SS Nomadic, has been restored to her original glory and is back home in the historic Hamilton Dock, near Titanic Belfast. Come on board and experience over 100 years of authentic maritime and social history.

The Maritime Mile starts on the city side of the river, connecting Belfast's historic Sailortown to the Titanic Quarter. Take a walk through this storied area and uncover the rich history and legacy of the city's shipbuilding tradition.

TITANIC BELFAST

Get ready to see more, hear more and feel more at the reimagined Titanic Experience! With the launch of four exciting new themed galleries, guests will delve deeper into a reflective journey of the hopes and dreams of those impacted by the iconic ship.

TITANIC & OLYMPIC SLIPWAYS

Behind Titanic Belfast you'll find the historic slipways where these famous ships were built and launched over a hundred years ago. Containing many original features, a Memorial Garden illustrates the proportion of Titanic's victims and survivors from each of the passenger classes and crew. The outline of the sister ships illuminate at night and are the perfect space to reflect.

TITANIC HOTEL BELFAST

The original red brick building is a truly authentic part of Titanic's story. Harland and Wolff had two main drawing offices within the building, Drawing Office Two is now the vibrant heart of the hotel where you can relax and enjoy lunch, dinner or even a cocktail or two. This breathtaking room is where many of the world's most famous ocean liners, including RMS Titanic, were painstakingly designed.

THE GREAT LIGHT

This former lighthouse optic is a unique heritage object with significance to Belfast's economic industrial maritime past. Originally serving both Mew and Tory Island lighthouses, the optic is the largest of its kind ever constructed and dates back to 1887. It is lit all year round and has amazing views over Belfast Harbour and Lough.

TITANIC DISTILLERY

In the heart of the Maritime Mile, Thompson Dock and Pumphouse- the home of Titanic Distillers. Inspired by the people who worked in Belfast's shipyards more than a century ago- you will now be able to walk in their footsteps in the very pump-house and dry dock that represents such an authentic part of the Titanic story and indeed the history of Belfast.

SOUND YARD

SoundYard is a playful art installation inspired by the sounds of Belfast's shipyards. Located on Queen's Quay close to the Odyssey and Abercorn Marina, visitors can enjoy this interactive sound and play experience which brings to life the story of Belfast's maritime heritage.

HMS CAROLINE

One ship, one hundred years, one thousand stories! This April step back on board HMS Caroline and experience an incredible day out the whole family can enjoy. Explore this First World War ship, get hands on with a variety of interactive exhibits and take part in some family friendly activities.

EXPLORE AND EXPERIENCE

Visit Lisburn & Castlereagh

Get a spring in your step and experience everything there is to see and do in Lisburn and Castlereagh!

A Royal Gem

Hillsborough Castle and Gardens is a must-visit destination for history lovers and nature enthusiasts alike. You will find the official royal residence in Northern Ireland in the heart of the charming village of Royal Hillsborough, where you can take a tour of this 18th-century mansion which has hosted royalty, world leaders, and dignitaries. Explore the elegant state rooms, rich with political and historical significance, and learn its fascinating stories before strolling through 100 acres of beautifully landscaped gardens. From peaceful woodlands to vibrant floral displays, the gardens offer a tranquil escape. Don't miss the stunning Spring Spectacular and be dazzled by over half a million bulbs in bloom when daffodils and crocuses mark their emergence from winter, handing over to tulips and camassia later in the spring.

The Art of Craft

Nestled in the heart of the County Down countryside, Hinch Distillery takes you on an unforgettable journey into the world of premium whiskey and gin. From grain to glass, their expert distillers craft spirits that reflect tradition, innovation, and passion. Join a guided tour to explore their state-of-the-art facilities, witness the intricate distillation process, and savour the rich flavours of their award-winning spirits.

Whether you're a whiskey connoisseur or a curious visitor, Hinch offers an immersive experience that delights the senses. Raise a glass, enjoy the warmth of Irish hospitality, and take home a piece of its legacy.

Take a Trek

Alpaca trekking at Ballyburren Outdoor Escapes is a unique and unforgettable experience. Set amidst the rolling hills and picturesque landscapes of County Down, this adventure offers a chance to connect with nature while learning about these gentle animals. Meet the alpacas Mocha, Flat White and Espresso before enjoying a leisurely 40-minute trek through the beautiful woodland trails. Finish off by enjoying a speciality coffee on the island, or make it a special occasion by pre-booking a luxurious picnic hamper to enjoy in the picnic area.

The mLink mobile ticketing App is available to download on IOS and Android devices. You can purchase NI Railways, Metro/Glider, Foyle Metro, yLink and 24+, Airport Express 300, Goldliner services (within Northern Ireland), selected Ulsterbus and Urby tickets.

THE BELFAST VISITOR PASS

An integrated Translink smartcard providing unlimited bus and rail travel for 1, 2 or 3 consecutive days within the Belfast Visitor Pass Zone. This means you can get out and about and explore more of our vibrant, lively city. Your Belfast Visitor Pass will also let you enjoy a whole world of fantastic offers and discounts, from savings on key attractions and tours to special offers and incentives in some of our main cultural venues, restaurants, cafés and shops! You can purchase your pass from the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre, at both airports and bus or train stations in the city.

Plan a journey or download a timetable at translink.co.uk or download the 'Translink NI' app from Google Play / Apple Store.
